

UK Beneficiary Designation Form/Expression of Wish Form Level B and Level I-IV Employees

If you wish to remove any beneficiaries currently on file, please complete a new form. Any strike-throughs or similar alterations to the original form will deem it invalid.

In the event of my death, I wish the Trustees of the Enterprise Rent-A-Car UK Limited Death in Service Scheme to pay the Lump-Sum Death Benefit arising under the scheme to the beneficiary(ies) listed below. I understand that the Trustees will not be bound by this form and that it is only an expression of my wishes.

Primary Beneficiary Designation

Beneficiary Name/Name of Trust(ee) *	Address, City, Postal Code	Relationship	Birth Date	Gender (M or F)	% of Benefit

If you list multiple beneficiaries but fail to list the percent of benefit, payment may be made in equal shares or all to the survivor(s).

100%

In the event said primary beneficiary(ies) predecease(s) the insured, I designate as contingent beneficiary(ies):

Contingent Beneficiary Designation

Beneficiary Name/Name of Trust(ee) *	Address, City, Postal Code	Relationship	Birth Date	Gender (M or F)	% of Benefit

If you list multiple beneficiaries but fail to list the percent of benefit, payment may be made in equal shares or all to the survivor(s).

100%

If no primary or contingent beneficiary designated shall be living following the insured's death, the amount payable by reason of the insured's death shall be payable as stated in the Group Policy.

You may find the following definitions helpful in completing your Beneficiary Designation Form/Expression of Wish Form.

Primary Beneficiary: Your primary beneficiary should be the individual(s) or organisation that you wish to receive the insurance proceeds. You may have the proceeds divided among several primary beneficiaries. To do this, you must indicate what percentage of the proceeds you would like them to receive. Your total shares must equal 100%.

Contingent Beneficiary: Your contingent beneficiary should be the individual(s) or organisation that you wish to receive the insurance proceeds if your primary beneficiary(ies) (see definition above) predecease(s) the insured. You may have the proceeds divided among several contingent beneficiaries. To do this, you must indicate what percentage of the proceeds you would like them to receive. Your total shares must equal 100%.
